

Faculty Guide to Student Services

If a student needs...

Contact...

Help registering for classes, access to or information about outside resources, help planning or choosing courses, or career guidance Help with finding SPC and community resources related to student mental health, food insecurity, transportation, or other non-academic issues Assistance with finding, organizing, or citing sources; tutoring and study strategies; MyCourses help; computer and printer access to complete assignments; quiet study space Help with technical issues related to MySPC, MyCourses, student email and other technology-related concerns Information about individual accommodations or classroom modifications, such as notetaking or adaptive technology Scheduling makeup testing when approved by faculty, testing accommodations with approval from accessibility services, and placement testing Guidance and assistance in finding federal aid to pay for tuition and course textbooks and materials Opportunities to interact with peers outside of the classroom, pathways to leadership Help deciding on a major or future occupation, training in employability skills (such as resume writing or interview skills), help developing a professional network, access to information about jobs and internships Mentoring and guidance for men, access to resources MAX—Men Achieving Excellence Mentoring and guidance for women, access to resources WOW — Women on the Way
student mental health, food insecurity, transportation, or other non-academic issues Assistance with finding, organizing, or citing sources; tutoring and study strategies; MyCourses help; computer and printer access to complete assignments; quiet study space Help with technical issues related to MySPC, MyCourses, student email and other technology-related concerns Information about individual accommodations or classroom modifications, such as notetaking or adaptive technology Scheduling makeup testing when approved by faculty, testing accommodations with approval from accessibility services, and placement testing Guidance and assistance in finding federal aid to pay for tuition and course textbooks and materials Opportunities to interact with peers outside of the classroom, pathways to leadership Help deciding on a major or future occupation, training in employability skills (such as resume writing or interview skills), help developing a professional network, access to information about jobs and internships Mentoring and guidance for men, access to resources MAX—Men Achieving Excellence	outside resources, help planning or choosing courses, or	Advising and study strategies; MyCourses help; computer and printer access to complete assignments; quiet study space Help with technical issues related to MySPC, MyCourses, student email and other technology-related concerns Information about individual accommodations or classroom modifications, such as notetaking or adaptive technology Scheduling makeup testing when approved by faculty, testing accommodations with approval from accessibility services, and placement testing Guidance and assistance in finding federal aid to pay for tuition and course textbooks and materials Opportunities to interact with peers outside of the classroom, pathways to leadership Help deciding on a major or future occupation, training in employability skills (such as resume writing or interview skills), help developing a professional network, access to information about jobs and internships Mentoring and guidance for men, access to resources MAX – Men Achieving Excellence	student mental health, food insecurity, transportation, or	Resources for Life Issues
Information about individual accommodations or classroom modifications, such as notetaking or adaptive technology Scheduling makeup testing when approved by faculty, testing accommodations with approval from accessibility services, and placement testing Guidance and assistance in finding federal aid to pay for tuition and course textbooks and materials Opportunities to interact with peers outside of the classroom, pathways to leadership Help deciding on a major or future occupation, training in employability skills (such as resume writing or interview skills), help developing a professional network, access to information about jobs and internships Mentoring and guidance for men, access to resources Accessibility Services Testing Center Financial Aid Student Life & Leadership Career Services MAX – Men Achieving Excellence	and study strategies; MyCourses help; computer and printer	Learning Resources
classroom modifications, such as notetaking or adaptive technology Scheduling makeup testing when approved by faculty, testing accommodations with approval from accessibility services, and placement testing Guidance and assistance in finding federal aid to pay for tuition and course textbooks and materials Opportunities to interact with peers outside of the classroom, pathways to leadership Help deciding on a major or future occupation, training in employability skills (such as resume writing or interview skills), help developing a professional network, access to information about jobs and internships Mentoring and guidance for men, access to resources MAX – Men Achieving Excellence		Technical Support Center testing accommodations with approval from accessibility services, and placement testing Guidance and assistance in finding federal aid to pay for tuition and course textbooks and materials Opportunities to interact with peers outside of the classroom, pathways to leadership Help deciding on a major or future occupation, training in employability skills (such as resume writing or interview skills), help developing a professional network, access to information about jobs and internships Mentoring and guidance for men, access to resources MAX – Men Achieving Excellence	classroom modifications, such as notetaking or adaptive	Accessibility Services
tuition and course textbooks and materials Opportunities to interact with peers outside of the classroom, pathways to leadership Help deciding on a major or future occupation, training in employability skills (such as resume writing or interview skills), help developing a professional network, access to information about jobs and internships Mentoring and guidance for men, access to resources MAX – Men Achieving Excellence	testing accommodations with approval from accessibility	Testing Center
Classroom, pathways to leadership Help deciding on a major or future occupation, training in employability skills (such as resume writing or interview skills), help developing a professional network, access to information about jobs and internships Mentoring and guidance for men, access to resources MAX – Men Achieving Excellence		Financial Aid
employability skills (such as resume writing or interview skills), help developing a professional network, access to information about jobs and internships Mentoring and guidance for men, access to resources MAX – Men Achieving Excellence		Student Life & Leadership
	employability skills (such as resume writing or interview skills), help developing a professional network, access to	Career Services
Mentoring and guidance for women, access to resources WOW – Women on the Way	Mentoring and guidance for men, access to resources	MAX – Men Achieving Excellence
	Mentoring and guidance for women, access to resources	WOW – Women on the Way